Pope Francis' October Intention:

The Laity's Mission in the Church
We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.

Father Dave Pivonka, TOR, and Dr. Bob Rice of Franciscan University of Steubenville have joined forces on "They That Hope," a new weekly podcast launched on September 30, 2020.

The co-hosts want to help listeners find "humor and hope in a crazy world" and to understand that "God is still present in the world and the Church is still holy and beautiful," said Father Pivonka, president of Franciscan University. "They That Hope" is available now at <https://franciscan.edu/presidents-office/#podcast> and on most major podcast apps. Click here for Apple Podcasts.

Unbound Freedom in Christ Conference

An Unbound Freedom in Christ Conference will be held on Saturday, Oct. 17, from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., at Blessed Sacrament Church, Sargus Hall, 852 Main St., Wintersville. Unbound is a simple, gentle, and powerful prayer ministry of healing in which a trained team prays with individuals to assist them in overcoming the spiritual and personal obstacles they encounter in life. Participants will hear a comprehensive treatment of the Unbound model given by Father Boniface Hicks, a Benedictine monk of the St. Vincent Archabbey, Latrobe, Pennsylvania, in live presentations, which may then be personally applied to one's own life. In addition, those attending will have the option of receiving individual prayer ministry during the conference and to register for prayer ministry at a later date. Registration will be held online at unbound.ticketbud.com/steubenville or contacting Deacon Richard Adams by telephone at (740) 283-4564 or email radams@diosteub.org. Registration fee is $25, which includes lunch. Masks and social distancing are required.
